JUDGMENT

Since the petitioner is served with only provisional bill and objection is raised, W.P. is disposed of directing the second respondent to hear the petitioner's objections and finalise the bill. No disconnection should be effected until finalisation of bill. If bill is finalised as such and petitioner chooses to file appeal, then such appeal should be disposed of within a reasonable time and petitioner should be allowed to retain the connection if 50% of the disputed arrears is paid soon after finalisation of bill. The second respondent is directed to retain connection till disposal of appeal on the above condition.
